The oldest Democrat in this good old The oldest Democrat in this good old county of Smyth has never seen a more glorious triumph of the principles of his party than was witnessed here to-day. Judge Rhea, of Washington, met Fowler and Browning, and as it was their day, they sandwiched him between the two, in the hope of crushing him. But heavens! how they were disappointed. He completely captured the crowd, and the little Boss's were the sickest crew we have ever seen. This has been considered the ever seen. This has been considered the stronghold of Mahoneism in the Ninth district. Billy Pendleton, of the "Pee-wee" erowd, and editor of the Patriot-Herald, struggled to hold his followers, but it was no go. They cooled, they faltered, they fled from him. The Mahoneites do not now claim that they will carry the county by more than 200. Cameron carried it by 500. Our friends are confident that we will Judge Rhea is one of the most powerful and fearless stumpers in the whole State. He is a host. Poor Fowler carries a "black eye" given him by Rhea at Cedararound the neck of Mahoneism that will eclved.
